PHOTO X

The first group exhibition by 6 photographers from Kings Cross

Angela Inglis Sarah Lunn Nigel Buckner
Jane Moss Peter Herbert Cathy Aitchison

Photo X are a group of professional and enthusiastic local photographers who have been meeting at St Pancras Hospital since 2005.

The group supports each other and learns about photography by sharing practical knowledge and experience. This enables each member of the collective to develop skills in publishing and exhibiting while exploring photography in quarterly meetings. These have included workshops in Photoshop, in depth appraisals of individual portfolios, visits to exhibitions and an exercise in twilight photography while exploring the River Thames.

This exhibition marks the end of the first year before meeting again in the autumn with plans to expand the group by inviting other photographers. If you are interested, please visit our exhibition or contact 0207 5303328 / email peter.herbert@camdenpct.nhs.uk.
